

FIRST IN ROADSTER CLASS

COLONEL PURCELL, OWNED BY CHARLES E. WHITLOCK, JR., RICHMOND, AND DRIVEN BY MR. SMITH.

ESSEX AND BLITZEN
STAR OVER JUMPS

Jack Baker and Blittie Hibbs Take All the Money on the Flat in Small Fields, but Mighty Close Contestants—Horse Show Features Classy.

The sixth annual spring meeting of the Virginia Racetrack and Horse Show Association closed yesterday with a program that was applauded from start to finish. From the time the green hunters came to perform over four feet and no more, until the special class of gaited saddle horses came in through the races, the crowd was on edge.

The race card as a whole was better than that of the first day. More entries and closer finishes marked the afternoon, and when Essex, with Bob Taylor up, finished three lengths ahead of Good Friar in the last race, the large crowd was ready to say that it had seen a good card run.

The audience yesterday was almost two to one for those who saw the horses Saturday and the enthusiasm was more marked. The classes of hunters were better filled than on the first day, and the conditions under which the horses entered made it more certain that the best horse would win and the spectators appreciated it.

Six Strong Contenders.
Probably the closest event of the afternoon in the horse show was the roadster class, in which there were six entries. After being sent around the ring a score of times and being examined in every particular, the judges awarded the blue ribbon to Col. Purcell, owned by Charles E. Whitlock, of this city. Emma Stark, also owned by Mr. Whitlock, took the second ribbon.

In the hunt club class, which was especially attractive, the Warrenton Hunt Club took the blue ribbon with its class of a trio of hunters as has been seen in Richmond in years. The Tomahawk Club came second, with the Riverside Club of Petersburg, third. Miss Anne Royall, of Richmond, rode one of the Riverside trio, and although her mount blundered over the first jump, she finished in rather good form without a fall. Miss Swartz rode with the winning team and Mrs. Osborne showed with Tomahawk.

A special class for gaited saddle horses was put on at the last minute, and a dozen first-class animals were put through their paces in the show ring. F. and P. Rose, of Sabot, Va., made a sweet of the class, taking first, third, fourth and fifth ribbons. Dr. J. C. Walton's Belmont took second.

Race Card Good.
The race card yesterday afternoon furnished three finishes that brought the grandstand to its feet and created enthusiasm much for the day. The first race, a mile, was won by Essex, with Bob Taylor up. The second race, a mile, was won by Blittie Hibbs, with George G. Hall up. The third race, a mile, was won by Blittie Hibbs, with George G. Hall up.

In the first race Blittie Hibbs was, as on Saturday, the one best bet. The Dunlop cast-off started out well ahead of the pack, but before the last turn George G. Hall and Benlala had him close, and they came in together, distinguished from each other. The contenders weakened in the stretch, however, and Hibbs came home under the whip with George G. Hall four lengths behind. Benlala ran third.

Young Blittie had it all his own way in the first steeplechase, with only Beggerman a near-favorite. At the fourth jump Beggerman fell with Bob Taylor and was out of the race. Blittie and Iron Prince, owned by Dr. J. A. White, then began to fight it out, and it was not decided until the wire was reached. Iron Prince ran close to Blittie's heels all the way around, and although he could not overtake the favorite he was right behind him when he passed under the wire.

Jack Baker had it all his own way in the second flat race, taking the lead at the start and never losing it. Helen B. and the King of Bashan fought for place, with the King ahead at the wire.

In the last steeplechase there was some doubt among the spectators as to whether Essex, with Bob Taylor up, who had been thrown and stunned in the second steeple, could outrace Goldfleur, who had a fresh rider, Taylor. Taylor was not hurt too badly, and rode Essex to one of his easiest victories, with Good Friar, of the J. T. Temple stable, a rather good second. Goldfleur was a poor third.

Bob Taylor was thrown in the second steeplechase, going over the fourth jump in a rather curious manner. A small white dog hovered at the far side of the jump as the horses came up, and a spectator threw a stick at the dog to frighten him away just as the horses rose to the jump. Young Blittie's lance struck the dog, and Beggerman, on which Taylor had the mount, went down.

From the grandstand it looked as if Beggerman had struck the dog and fallen, but those close to the accident declare that Blittie struck the dog and that Beggerman went down of his own accord.

Blittie was bruised and scratched about the face and the side of his shoulder was wrenched, but it did not prevent his going into the next race and winning on Essex. The summaries:

First race—five furlongs, for three-year-olds and upwards, purse, $200. Blittie Hibbs, first; George G. Hall, second; Benlala, third. Lucile R. and jump! I would rather be in the grandstand looking out.

Dr. J. A. White's Iron Prince ran a fine race over the jumps. For the first time he made a great performance, and the veteran Young Blittie had to be ridden out to beat him home. The Prince will go further and faster before very long.

Mr. Temple's Mr. Hibbs stacked up another load of oats and hay for his winter use when he romped away home in the five-furlong event. The race was between Benlala and Firebrand for fourth place. Benlala came home a head in front.

Mr. Kerr made his win yesterday on Young Blittie.

Twohig Temple got away with two wins and a second. He made a clean sweep of the flats and took second in the last steeplechase.

Again the starter, Elmer Wilson, did good work. The ponies were sent away in perfect alignment.

Every one seems pleased with the show. U. D. Benner, of Warrenton, leads in the winnings, with W. W. Osborne next, and Dr. Owsley third.

Mr. Snyder's Her Grace made a beautiful performance in the four and a half foot class, taking the red to Orient's blue.

Mr. Graves says he's satisfied, but just wait for the show next year!

WORK HORSES ARE
FEATURE OF SHOW

W. S. Forbes & Co. Take Blue Ribbons Over Large Number of Teams From City Streets.

The first work horse parade ever seen in the South was held yesterday afternoon in the State Fair Grounds, in conjunction with the Virginia Racing and Horse Show Association, in which nearly 200 draught teams which work every day in the streets of Richmond participated.

The W. S. Forbes Packing Company walked away with the first prize in the double team entry with a pair of draughts that could hardly have been beaten anywhere. D. M. Lea & Co. took the blue in the single horse team class with as fast competition as first-class Percherons can give.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Double horse teams—W. S. Forbes, first; Stephen Putney & Co., second; J. P. McDonough, third. Single horse teams—National Packing Company, first; Stephen Putney & Co., second; D. M. Lea & Co., third. Double mule teams—Stephen Putney Shoe Company, first; Times-Dispatch Company, second.

Single mule teams—Schwartzschild-Sulzberger, first and second; Hermann Schmidt, third.
